

Music KS3

When using this resource, please consider the links across all key stages as there are many websites and resources that could be relevant for a wide range of ages.

BBC Bitesize (Cy/E)

A wide range of learning resources - video clips, games, information:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/subjects/zmsvr82>

Hwb (Cy/E)

Resources on a range of topic areas. Filters can be used to select the correct Age Phase and Subject.

<https://hwb.gov.wales/repository/tree?sort=created&language=en>

<https://hwb.gov.wales/repository/tree?sort=created&language=cy>

BBC Teach (E)

Curriculum-mapped videos, arranged by age-group and subject: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach>

The School Run (E)

Support for understanding what and how your child learns – across a range of subject areas and age ranges. Free trial available now with downloadable worksheets and interactive games:

<https://www.theschoolrun.com/other-subjects/music>

Music Teaching Resources (E)

Particularly suitable for children learning to play instruments or those wanting to start understanding the theory of music. Support for learning how to read notation with free, downloadable worksheets:

<https://musicteachingresources.com/free-music-teaching-handouts.html>

Music Tech Teacher (E)

A vast range of interactive music quizzes, games, worksheets and music theory help. Also video tutorials and worksheet support on how to introduce children to music technology.

<http://www.musictechteacher.com/>

Music Theory.net (E)

The website focuses on supporting learners with music education fundamentals (theory, notation etc). The entire web site is available for download in a free offline edition. <http://www.musictheory.net>

Musical Futures (E)

For learners to improve their performance skills. Access to play along tracks, performance exercises and more: <https://www.musicalfutures.org/age-group/key-stage-2>

Education Quizzes (E)

Interactive Music quizzes (audio files included) and support on developing musical knowledge (e.g. notation, terminology): <https://www.educationquizzes.com/ks2/music/>

Watching Free Concerts Online (E)

A website hosting links to free concerts – from rock and pop to classical and jazz. Suitable for all ages. <http://ww1.concertsvideos.com/>

The Harefield Academy Resources (E)

Downloadable resource pack covering the basics with music theory and notation as well as appraising quizzes, history of music and different genres and key terminology: http://www.theharefieldacademy.org/files/curriculum/Listening_Log.pdf

Musical Contexts Worksheets (E)

Online downloadable resources for school music learning. Some worksheet resources are available to download, not requiring the paid subscription: http://www.musicalcontexts.co.uk/index_files/page0008.htm

Dallas Symphony Orchestra Kids (E)

Interactive resources including introduction to music history, the opportunity to hear and learn about instruments of the orchestra (including worksheets to print), and tips on how to practice.: <https://www.mydso.com/dso-kids/>

New York Philharmonic Kids (E)

Wide range of games and activities, information about composers, performers, and instruments, and ideas for composition projects: <http://www.nyphilkids.org/>

Classical Music Archives (E)

Website contains over 38,400 full-length classical music files in MIDI, MP3, or WMA streaming file formats. To download files you must have a login and a password. Users with a free membership account may download up to five files per day: <http://www.classicalmusicarchives.com>

Rock Roll Hall of Fame (E)

Free online learning with play along tracks for performing and music terminology, notation and general theory support: <https://www.rockhall.com/education>

ABRSM Theory Quizzes (Grades 1-5) (E)

Music theory quizzes from the Associated Board of the Royal School of Music Grades 1-5:
<https://gb.abrsm.org/en/theory2018/music-theory-2018-quiz/>